

Susquehanna County Library Art Policy

The Susquehanna County Historical Society & Free Library Association has no obligation to accept, display, or maintain any items donated to the Association. Once an item is accepted, the Association shall be the sole owner of the donated item(s) and will have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to deaccession any donated item(s) without providing notice to or obtaining the consent of the donor. Final decisions as to the acceptance of art donations are made by the Susquehanna County Library Board of Trustees at the recommendation of the Administrator/Librarian.

Selection Criteria for Artworks

Overall the SCHS&FLA has limited space for the display of art, and therefore it is important to consider very carefully the acceptance of a piece of art as a gift.

Style and Nature: The art should be appropriate in scale, material, form and content for the library environment.

Quality and Elements of Design: Public art may have other functions in addition to aesthetic enjoyment. For example, a work of art may establish a focal point, modify, or enhance a space or identify a building function. As far as possible, the work of art should complement and enhance the building and its purpose.

Durability: Works of art will be examined for durability, taking the library environment and the condition of the piece into consideration. Extremely fragile items or those that are potential targets for vandalism are not appropriate for the library setting.

Installation / Maintenance Costs: When selecting a work of art to purchase or determining if a gift may be accepted, the Library Board will take into consideration any security issues, the cost of installation, and the cost of maintaining the work over its lifetime.

Public Liability: Works will not be selected or accepted that create unsafe conditions or contain other factors that may bear on public liability.

Conditions of Acceptance: With direction from the Board of Trustees, the Administrator/Librarian will provide the donor with a letter of acceptance to be signed. The donor is required to accept the Library's terms and conditions including the following:

- All gifts must be unconditional, transferring ownership and all rights of ownership to the Susquehanna County Historical Society & Free Library Association.
- Gifts are accepted only with the understanding that the Board of Trustees has the right to determine retention, location and other considerations relating to the use or disposal of the donated gift.

- The Board of Trustees may choose to display the gift or not.
- The Board of Trustees may choose to sell the item and use the proceeds for any purpose appropriate to the library's mission.
- The Board of Trustees may transfer ownership of the item as it deems appropriate.

Donor Conditions of Acceptance: The donor's conditions may affect whether or not the gift will be accepted.

Appraisal: The Board of Trustees will not appraise the value of any gift for any reason, including income tax deductions. To obtain a tax benefit from the donation, the donor is responsible to provide an appraisal when the art work is donated to the association.
